The The Azerbaijaninteam, consisting of Nizami alsmailov: Arif Movsumzade a Fidani and Uliviyya RuRustamova, the students of Baku State University and Khazan University, won second place in the category of "Innovation" in the competition.

Th The competition tattended by 33 eteams from different countries, was dield in three categories: "World Citizenship", "Games" and "Innovation".

Azerbaijani "NoObs" team, participating for the first time in this competition, submitted the project "Sp"Spinal", which is reonsidered a software for l'Bluetooth-regulators is et, as well as for the Windows Ph Phone smartphones, creating the habit of sitting down and standing up without body bending he proproject wone second place in the category of "Innovation" have first esecond and third place winners grained a grant in the ramount of 50, 10 and 5 thousand dollars from the Microsoft company for the further development of the project.

Itt should be noted that Azerbaijani "NoObs' team became the winner of the "Imagine Cup" docal qualifying round held by the Microsoft Azerbaijan Company jointly with the Ministry of Education, the "High Technology Park" under the Ministry of Communications and High Technologies and "Nar Mobile" network operator.