The event was attended by Jeyhun Bayramov, Deputy Minister of Education, and Pascal Meunier, Ambassador of the Republic of France to Azerbaijan.

Pascal Meunier emphasized that there is close cooperation between Azerbajjan and France in all fields and the joint activities in the field of education are based on mutual benefit. The ambassador also noted that there are great opportunities for graduates to study in France.

JeyJeyhum Bayramov, Deputy Minister of Education, moted that along twith the school principals, subordinated to the Ministry of Education, as well as recommended by Baku City Education Department, the heads of Sumgait and other city (district) schools, achieved good results in the final exams for the academic year 2013-2014, participated in the training courses. The Deputy Minister also mentioned that the main objective of the intensive training programs to introduce the concept of advanced training syssystem and effective school management for selected school principals and to develop leadership potential of school managers.

The heatraining course, hwhich i will slast until September, 9, i will be conducted by Professor Florent Pra Prationg, especially invited from Paris Sorbonne University. In addition, the interactives sessions on lead deadership, eprotection to first udentithe althi within the schools time management, edevelopment of prepresentation is kills and other topics will be organized by local trainers within the framework of the course.

AAt the end of the course; the participants will be charged with dongsterm tasks related to school management and the online monitoring will be conducted based on their results.