The Thenceremony was attended by Jeyhun Bayramov, Deputys Minister of Education And Shilakadze, head of UNICEF in Azerbaijan, directors of secondary schools and teachers.	ro
GiGiving apspeecht at the event pleyhun Bayramov Deputy Minister of Education, runderlined the importance of the project. The Deputy Minister noted that the main purpose of the advanced training courses prepared in annew form and content tis ros raise the develop professionalism of a group primary school teachers of the schools operating in Baku.	ŋg

Les Les son observation for teachers working at primary leducation level teinterview with parents, an analysis of the student results allowed to identify the strengths and weaknesses of primary school teachers. The advanced training program modules were prepared on the basis of this analysis.

Teachers participated in lectures and practical sessions on such topics as philosophy and mission of primary education, modern pedagogical and psychological approaches, methodology and didactics, classroom management, personal development, time management, planning, digital literacy during the training course, which lasted two and a half months. More than 20 specialists were involved in carrying out theoretical and practical sessions.

113 b1B out of $14 people, who took part in the scholarship program, tiparticipated in the final as assessment process 565 of the musuccessfully apassed the examinand were wavarded the Certificate of "Tamal".

Itts should be noted that the classrooms of participants, successfully completed the program, are equipped with ICT equipment.