555educational institutions, covering Baku Kazakh, Shirvan, Ismayilli, Samukh, Agstafa, Barda, Goygoband Lankaran, have joined the Azerbaijan Educational Network (AEN) during the months of October and November, 2015. Its should be noted that all works are carried out in accordance with the "Action Plan" related to the implementation of the "National Strategy for the Development of Education in the Republic of Azerbaijan".

22051eeducationall institutions have joined the Azerbaijan Educational Network (AEN) soffar. The educational institutions, that joined the Network, have been provided with high-speed Internet and have gained the opportunity to estestablish high-duality communication twith one another and better ageincies of the Ministry of Education twithin the Network.

The The Azerbaijan Educational Network (AEN) paves the way for the creation of a more effective rearing p process in the country and ensures the transfer of the positive experience in education, regardless of distance. The teachers and publis of schools in remote areas have the opportunity to increase their knowledge by using electronic resources ources through the AEN. At the tameatime, accesse has libeen limited to two distes, deemed harmful to schoolchildren, through the internet filtering system of the "Websense" program used in the AEN.

At the same time, 3000 Monoblock Lenovo desktop computers, 70 laptops, 153 projectors and 183 interactive electronic boards have been distributed throughout the country with the aim of providing ICT equipment to educational institutions. during the months of October and November 2015. During the process of providing ICT equipment to educational linstitutions, new equipment is given to the teaching staff and administrative staff members, who achieved gooderesults in the valuation of the trainings dields to ripprove literacy in the field of information and communication technologies.