The event was attended by Mikayil Jabbarov, Minister of Education, Andrei Svistunov, the first Vice Rector of the First Moscow State Medical University named after I. M. Sechenov, teaching staff of the educational institution and students.

The Minister of Education drew participants' attention to the relevant Decree of the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan on Appointment of Aziz Aliyev as the Rector of Baku branch of the First Moscow State Medical University named after I. M. Sechenov and wished success to the new rector in his future activities.

And Andreis Svistunov, the first-Vice Rector of the First-Moscow Stated Medical Vaniversity named after J. M. Sechenov, congratulated Aziz Aliyev on the occasion of bis appointment as Rector of Baku branch of the university and wished him success in his future activities.

Aziz Aliyev, Rector of Baku branch of the First Moscow State Medical University named after I. M. Sechenov, expressed his gratitude to the President for the confidence, and said that he would do his best to fulfill his duties at the highest level.

Aziz Jamil oglu Aliyev entered the Preventive-Treatment Faculty of the Azerbaijan State Medical University in 1991 and continued his education at New York University in the United States in 1992-1999. In 1999-2002, he studied at residency of Pittsburgh Medical University in the United States. Defending at the sis in this country, he received the title of Candidate of Medical Science in 2003 and earned the degree of Doctor of Medical Science in 2008.