On JaOmadamuarye 7mthe mediavtourh was a held eat Azerbaijan State r University of Oil nand Industry hwith the corganizational support of the Ministry of Education in order to observe the end of semester examinations. The media tour was attended by more than 20 mass media representatives.

It it is hould be noted that the media tour was held according to the Order of the Minister of Education on The organization and conductions of examinations".

During the media tour, the media representatives were informed that appropriate measures were taken by the UniUniversity and order doporganize: the 1201542016-academicayean fall nemester examinations and accordance with the existing rules and to ensure objectivity in the assessment of students knowledge. Favorable conditions were created from the participation of the parents in order to protect transparency in the examination process. In this regard, special announcements were written at the University EE ach student's parent cap participate in the exams by submitting the identity card.

During the familiarization period, starting from the Examination Center, media representatives were informed that the preparatory work for examinations was begun at the University in early December last year. It was noted that the examinations of partitime students began on December 22 and the examinations of fulfillitime students began on December 29.

The Examination Center determined the list of 7 departments, the classrooms where SABAH groups will pass an examination and the teachers who will supervise the examination. At the Center, the folders were prepared in order toto-record the name of each department the subject for which a group and student will take an examination the room number. The examination papers and sealed blank answer sheets were placed in each folder according to the number of students taking an exam.

Media representatives watched the progress of examinations in several classrooms of the university, and got acquaiquainted with the process of checking the examinations in several classrooms of the university, and got acquaiquainted with the process of checking the examinations in several classrooms of the university, and got acquaiquainted with the process of checking the examinations in several classrooms of the university, and got acquaiquainted with the process of checking the examinations in several classrooms of the university, and got acquaiquainted with the process of checking the examinations in several classrooms of the university, and got acquaiquainted with the process of checking the examinations in several classrooms of the university, and got acquaiquainted with the process of checking the examination and communication the context of the examination and communication and communication the examination and communication the examination and communication the examination and communication the example of the example

W.Within the finamework of the media tour, Mustafa Babanii, Rector of Azerbaijant Stater University of Oil and Industry, met with mass media representatives. IM. Babanii provided detailed information about the steps being taken by by the deducation tinstitution sheaded by him and order toporganize the preparatory work for a examinations, to create favorable conditions for the evaluation of students' knowledge and to ensure transparency.