
On January 8, the ceremony of awarding the winners of "Plan competition of class communities" was held within the framework of the pilot project on the establishment of school communities.

The main purpose of the competition is to stimulate the activities of communities, established with the financial support of the World Bank and the organizational support of the company "Allianz Consult" within the framework of the pilot project, to motivate community members, to encourage teachers, students and parents to establish a community.

The event, held at Baku secondary school No. 204, was attended by representatives of the Ministry of Education, Baku city Education Department, state institutions involved in the organization of the competition, education experts, competition winners and media representatives.

In her speech, Mahabbat Valiyeva, Head of Baku city Education Department, spoke about the importance of the project and noted that school communities paved the way for the strengthening of reliability between parents and schools. According to M. Valiyeva, the right connection established among schools, students and parents plays an important role in child's future.

Then the speakers spoke about the importance of "School communities" project in terms of the strengthening of the relations between schools and parents, and underlined that this cooperation had a very positive impact on the improvement of children's academic achievements.

It should be noted that 37 class communities participated in the competition held by the website "www.community.az". The winners were determined in 5 categories. Grade III-J of secondary school No. 4 named after M. Mehdizade of Ganja city became the winner in the category "The best class community plan", Grade II-C of school-lyceum No. 220 named after A. Mahmudov of Baku city became the winner in the category "Joy without expense", Grade VI-D of secondary school No. 204 named after A. Aliyeva of Baku city became the winner in the category "The most original idea", Grade XI-B of secondary school No. 4 named after M. Mehdizade of Ganja city became the winner in the category "Goodwill without borders". 2 communities - Grade VIII-A of secondary school No. 1 named after I. Hasanov of Ismayilli city and Grade VI-B of secondary school No. 169 of Baku city excelled in the category "The most active persons".

The winners were awarded with Honorary Diplomas and valuable prizes in each category.

The competition was supported by "Access Bank" OJSC, "Healthy Family" LLC, "Standard Insurance" OJSC, "Baker Tilly Azerbaijan" LLC, "Azza" Confectionery, "Khazar Ventures" LLC, "Azerfon" LLC.