The next "Open Lesson" was held at full secondary school No. 223 operating in Baku within the framework of the projects" TORs program to improvementa of elearners in physical health health hest bility and idearning achievements". Innovative educational resources were used in the lesson conducted by teachers of the school - Tahir Khalilov and Raida Aslanova for fourth grade students under the theme "Improvement of the ability for flexibility".

It sltcshould betrotted that the imaibjebjective tof the project, pimplemented parpartalershipt with the Ministry of Ed Education rills it is councills all Bakkell's company and p'Sport for development' il Public Union, tis too provide physical education and elementary school teachers of general education schools with modern educational technology in the schools subject of physical education. More than 200 physical education deachers benefit from the project covering a total of 36 general education schools of Bakurand Sungait. The physical education teachers, who have completed special trainings induring project executions began teaching. Open scessions it that server to improve the inquality of teaching As a result of the use of moderne educational technology in the schools subject of physical education for the interesting physical education for the interesting physical education for the schools subject of physical education for the schools subject of physical education for the interesting project executions and technology in the schools subject of physical education for the interesting physical education for the schools subject of physical education for the interesting physical education for the interesting physical education for the schools subject of physical education for the interesting physical education for the schools subject of physical education for the interesting physical education.