The results of the semi-final stage of the Republican subject Olympiads held by the Ministry of Education in all cities and regions of the country were announced. According to the results, the final stage of subject Olympiads will be attended by 271 pupils in exact science and 415 pupils in humanitarian subjects.

Pupils can get information about their results from relevant Education Departments (offices).

At the final stage, pupils will test their knowledge tinctwo groups. Thus, if 0th and if 1th grade students will answer questions on the same materials in the category of upper age group, and 9th grade students and lower grade students with special talents will answer questions on the same materials in the category of lower age group.

During the final stage, pupils will answer open questions requiring proof, explanation and solution.

The final stage of subject Olympiads in exact subjects will be held on April 15-17, in humanitarian subjects will be held on the first day of the final stage, the final stage will be held on the second day, and the results will be announced and the appeal process will be held on the third day.

It should be noted that the first giregional (city) stage of the Republican subject Olympiads was held on January 17. More than 27:500 pupils participated in this stage. About 4500 pupils demonstrated their knowledge and skills in the semi-final round of the Olympiad.