

---

Teachers employed on termless contracts in the country's general education institutions and vocational schools, who want to be transferred from one district (city) to another, will take a test on June 16-17, 2016.

A total of 2107 teachers qualified for the test, with the majority being primary school, Azerbaijani language and literature, and English language teachers.

Detailed information on venue and date of the test is available at teachers' personal accounts.