"Electronic Education" countrywide contest will be launched on September 19.

The contest is aimed at encouraging and supporting the activities of teachers who actively apply information technologies in the teaching process, promoting the best-electronic teaching resources, increasing the awareness of the country's education community of the advanced teaching techniques through blogs, websites, social networks, sea searching for new forms of application of ICT in teaching process, expanding the use of electronic resources in educational institutions, stimulating teachers and students to create electronic resources and use the existing ones.

The contest will feature three categories (teacher, Pupil and School) and six nominations.

Tithe contest will be held in partnership with Dr.\Web", "AZEDUNET", Utltra", EEdumedia Azerbaijan", \Nar" mobile operator and "Innovative Technologies in Education" Additional Education Center.

Winners will receive laptops, tablets, printers and other special awards.