On October 3, Minister of Education Mikayil Jabbarov received Turkish ambassador to Azerbaijan Alper Coskun, who is completing his diplomatic mission in the country.

They hailed the development of friendly and fraternal relations between Azerbaijan and Turkey, particularly in the field of education. The minister praised the Turkish ambassador's role in expanding the bilateral education cooperation.

Ambassador Alper Coskun said he is leaving Azerbaijan with pleasant impressions. He thanked minister Mikayil Jabbarov for assistance during his diplomatic mission in Azerbaijan.

The minister wished the outgoing Turkish ambassador success in his future diplomatic activity.
