

---

Minister of Education Mikayil Jabbarov met with acclaimed Israeli start-up expert Tal Catran on November 1.

They discussed a range of issues, including the establishment and development of start-up environment, and the role of educational institutions in this process.

After the meeting the Israeli expert conducted a training session for employees of the Ministry of Education.