

---

An Azerbaijan-Turkey working group held its first meeting as part of education dialogue to develop cooperation in the field of education on July 4.

Opening the two-day meeting, Minister of Education Mikayil Jabbarov hailed educational relations as part of strategic partnership between the two countries. He noted the importance of developing the bilateral cooperation.

The meeting of the working group involved representatives of the two countries' education authorities, including Deputy Minister of Education of the Republic of Azerbaijan Jeyhun Bayramov and Turkish Deputy Minister of National Education Orhan Erdem. The working group discussed Azerbaijan-Turkey relations in the field of education, legal base and future cooperation prospects.