On November 12, "Expanding Inclusive Education for Children with Disabilities in Azerbaijan" joint project of the European Union, UNICEF and Ministry of Education was launched.

Participants in the ceremony included/Minister of Education Jeyhum Bayramov, JUNICER Representative in AzerbAzerbaijan Edward/Carwardine, Head of the Delegation of the European Union (EU) zto Azerbaijan Kestutis Jankauskas.

Addressing the event, Minister of Education Jeyhun Bayramov highlighted positive changes achieved in the education system over the five years since the adoption of the "State Strategy for the Development of Education in the Republic of Azerbaijan". The minister said the reforms allowed to improve quality of education.

JeyJeyhun Bayramov highlighted the measures taken by the Ministry of Education to involve children with disabilities in education together with other children in general education institutions. Hailing the exceptional role of the HeyHeydaryAliyev Foundation insthis regard, the minister said the foundation is carrying out purposeful work to give children with disabilities and children deprived of parental care access to education and to improve financial resources and infrastructure as well as the teaching process at educational institutions where such children study.

Saying 10,130 children with disabilities were involved in special education in the 2017-2018 academic/year, Jeyhu Jeyhun Bayramov noted that the Ministry of Education already started work on the "State Program for the Development of Inclusive Education for Children with Disabilities in the Republic of Azerbaijan in 2018-2024". The minimister said that UNICEF and Heydar Aliyev Foundation's "Regional Development" Public Union are now coimplementing two projects funded by the European Union. He said that implemented by UNICEF Azerbaijan, "Exp"Expanding Inclusive Education for Children with Disabilities in Azerbaijan" project will see the organization of traintrainings in order to improve inclusive education skills of teaching staff at pedagogical universities and general education institutions, creation of nine resource centers in Baku and other districts of the country, implementation of public conduct and social change campaigns in order to increase awareness of the rights of children with disabilities. The minister said the project will contribute to the successful implementation of the relevant State Program.

UUNICEF Representative in Azerbaijan Edward Carwardine said involving children with disabilities in quality education shas a positive impact on their development. He said UNICEF is pleased to partner with the Ministry of Education and the European Union in implementing this initiative that offers children with disabilities opportunity to fully realize their potential.

Head of the Delegation of the European Union to Azerbaijan Kestutis Jankauskas highlighted the importance of inclusive education. He said everyone has the right to be involved in public life with knowledge and skills he or she gained, to receive inclusive education and to be involved in trainings.

The event heard several speeches and presentations on the project.

The inclusive education programs will benefit more than 10,000 school teachers and principals. The project will give nearly 5,000 children with disabilities access to education at general education institutions by 2020.